SKETCH

This is a pencil named Pete. He loves to hangout with his best friend Paper. His other best friend is the Sharpener, but he doesn't know that the Sharpener is deceiving him into liking the sharpener. Pete likes the sharpener because he makes 'Pete look sharp and nice' but the truth is that he is slowly killing Pete by making him small, and there will be a point where Pete will diminish to nothing. The eraser on the other hand, who he considers as his enemy, is actually helping Pete but he doesn't know that. The Eraser wipes out all the mistakes made by Pete but Pete believes that by this he will become blunt and ugly. Pete is a very innocent character who is deceived easily and is unable to work out who is his friend and who is not.
